

Housing & Community Revitalization

(Abridged Web Version)

Introduction. Founded in 1993, North American Management is a Small Disadvantaged Business. Since incorporation, North American Management has been a trusted partner to the public and assisted housing community, nation-wide. Our strong past performance records in the housing industry, reflects our unique capacity to empower each client to achieve measurable performance gains through technical, analytical, and solution based services.

On Scope. On Time. On Budget.

North American Management's Housing and Community Revitalization Group focuses on improving the effectiveness of Federal, State and local public and assisted housing programs through expert research, technical assistance, management tools and strategic planning. Our solutions and products allow clients to improve and enhance the quality of life for our nation's communities in a cost-effective manner. Our team of experts empowers housing organizations to become high performance organizations. Our services and work products include, but are not limited to the following:

Training and Technical Assistance

Low Income
Public Housing

Low Income
Public Housing

Administrative and Management
Support

Public Housing
Authority Training
Plans

Resident Services

- North American Management has provided technical assistance to over 4,000 Public Housing Agencies in administering and managing all administrative and operational aspects of public housing programs nationwide and in United States territories.
- We have provided Public Housing Agency technical assistance all aspects of managing a PHA in areas such as financial systems, personnel policies, inventory controls, procurement, construction contract management, maintenance, financial management.
- We have provided Public Housing Agency technical assistance all aspects of managing a PHA in areas such as financial systems, personnel policies, inventory controls, procurement, construction contract management, maintenance, financial management.
- North American Management has administered and managed all administrative and operational aspects of public housing programs nationwide.
- Our experts are seasoned trainers in providing training for Public Housing and Housing Choice Voucher programs, (ROSS, RHIIP, SEMAP) resident organizations, and other related groups and organizations throughout the United States.
- North American Management provides a broad spectrum of support services and resident initiatives including elderly persons, persons with disabilities, and family self-sufficiency.

Relevant Experience. North American Management's Housing & Community Revitalization experience and past performance records exhibits excellent service and astute knowledge of different aspects of developing, managing and supporting our client's needs.

Bridgeport Housing Authority: trained the Board of Commissioners in regulatory and fiduciary responsibilities in the oversight of the PHA's public and assisted housing programs

- Chicago Housing Authority: provided technical assistance and legal services in support of the PHA's Moving to Work demonstration program
- Chicago Housing Authority: provided procurement design and implementation support
- District of Columbia Housing Authority: providing innovative model assessing the needs of residents before, during and after a catastrophic incident

- Fairfax County, VA: change management support facilitated the implementation of welfare reform in County housing and social programs
- HHS, Health Resources and Services Administration, Public Housing Primary Care Program: provide training, technical assistance and resources to strengthen the capacity of primary health care centers focused on the health of public housing residents; create communication tools, convene an annual national conference and compile, review and report relevant data, best practices and other resources
- HUD, Office of Housing: provided a nationwide advertising campaign to educate Americans about predatory lending and HUD's Home Sales program
- HUD, Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity: conducted a BPR of the agency's headquarters and field offices operations and provided a written management study with recommendations and guidelines for process improvements, streamlined operations and industry best practices
- HUD, Office of Public and Indian Housing: provide technical assistance, training, research and management support to public housing authorities and the Office of PIH in the furtherance of responsible and effective public and assisted housing programs
- HUD, Office of Public and Indian Housing: evaluated operation and administration of assisted housing programs in Hawaii and Guam and provided recommendations and implementation guidance for program improvements
- HUD, Office of Public and Indian Housing, Grants Management Center: provide technical assistance and administrative support to the receipt, review and award of more than $100M in grant funds
- HUD, Office of Public and Indian Housing, Real Estate Assessment Center: provided research and policy analysis and assessment support in the development of physical assessment standards and evaluation protocols and methodologies

Business Tools. North American Management has designed and developed client focused and cost effective automated products and business tools, which support an array of technical services and business solutions.

- Housing Choice Voucher Program Independent Assessment
- Physical Needs Assessment Tool
- Public Housing Agency Annual and Five Year Plan
- Public Housing Agency Self-Assessment Tool
- Strategic Improvement for Public Housing Agencies

Contract Vehicles. North American Management has signed a number of GSA Federal Supply Schedules including:

- Contract No.: GS-10F-0219J: Mission Oriented Business Integrated Services (MOBIS)
- Contract No.: GS-00F-0009P: Marketing, Media & Public Information Services
- Contract No.: GS-00F-0009P: Information Technology Services and Training
- Contract No.: GS-00F-0009P: Financial Business Services
- Contract No.: GS-00F-0009P: Human Resources and EEO Services

For information on the many diverse products, tools and services provided by North American Management
Please visit our web site at www.namgt.com or call us at 703-812-0200